ATTRACTION

“This was such a surprise! Normally train museums are kind of boring to me- but NOT this one! My husband and my 4 year old granddaughter visited on 8/12/25 and I look so forward to visiting again. I loved it and loved seeing how much fun my granddaughter had. Now I want to come without grandkids and spend a little more time to see some more of all the fabulous displays. Every staff member we encountered (about 7) were so helpful and friendly and the museum was very nice and clean. If you come to visit Gulfport, MS- don't miss this. It grabs you the minute you walk in to the big beautiful train, etc.. display of the local area to the intricate details of all the Lego displays. This museum has something for all ages.”

-Karen Jones, Google Review

“Thank you to TrainTastic Interactive Model Railroad Museum in Gulfport Mississippi for making my autistic son the happiest I've ever seen. This kid was focused and all smiles for 3 straight hours today. Even though the pictures don't reflect it, because he always stops smiling when the camera comes out
The staff was incredible, the facility was amazing. They treated us like we were the only people on the planet today and it's very much appreciated. We can't wait to go back”

-Kyle Jenn Bodin, Facebook Review

“Underrated gem on the gulf coast! Perfect for kids and adults of all ages. It really is an impressive collection and presentation. And the staff is the friendliest!”
